1. Scouts Australia, New South Wales Branch (Scouts NSW) have established a Privacy Policy Version 4, October 2013 available at:
<http://www.nsw.scouts.com.au/download-document/56-scouts-nsw-privacy-policy>
2. Reference is also made to Section 6 of the Scouting Code of Conduct through which Cumberland Gang Show's responsibility is the respect of everyone's right to personal privacy at all times.
3. Personal information will be not be used in any way that you would not reasonably expect it to be used, and that all personnel acknowledge that the data collected will be held securely.
4. In particular, attention is drawn to Section 3 of the Scouts NSW Privacy Policy, titled 'Use and Disclosure & consent policy' which discusses access to data by other members of Scouts NSW and indicates that access to personal information by non-members, except custodial parents/guardians, is not permitted. In addition, personally identifiable data is not provided to third parties or non-members.
5. Cumberland Gang Show has always respected the privacy of its members and understands the importance placed on the protection of personal information of those within the organisation.
6. Should you have an issue with regards to the handling of personal information, please direct them to the relevant Director in accordance with Cumberland Gang Show's Complaints Handling Policy.
